MEDIA RELEASE

Date: October 13, 2010

The St. George Fire Department is supporting the St. George Professional Firefighters Association, IAFF members, and other fire departments across the nation in observance of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. The highlight of the observance is the "Cares Enough to Wear Pink" campaign.

St. George Fire Department is providing pink t-shirts with the "Cares Enough to Wear Pink" emblem to all personnel to wear on duty from October 23rd thru November 2nd. Woman's Hospital has also donated informational materials and breast cancer awareness ribbons for distribution during this time period.

Additionally, the St. George Firefighters "Cares Enough to Wear Pink" t-shirts are available for purchase to the general public. They cost $15 and are available in sizes small through 3XL. Profits are to benefit Woman's Hospital.

Pre-orders are now being taken. Walk-ins are welcome, but pre-orders are preferred. Shirts can be picked up at the St. George Fire Department administrative offices at 14141 Airline Hwy, Suite 1-H beginning October 20th. They will remain on sale thru November 2nd.

Anyone interested in purchasing a shirt can call 454-6550 or email their orders to Vefrosch@stgeorgefire.com.
