News From Captain Lee West

Evelyn Boe was surprised and a little bit shocked to get a phone call in the office a little after 4:00PM today (2/20) and hear Captain Lee West's voice on the other end.

He called to tell us that the surgery had gone well. He is facing about seven to nine days in the hospital, but sounded really good.

I know your thoughts and prayers are with Lee and his family. Many of you have been reading the blog entries from his wife Marybeth. Go to the site, linked off the St. George PFFA website, for more details as Lee recovers.

Recognize Anyone?

Firehouse.com had an article with photos about a fire in Springfield, La. One of the photos had a familiar face, Firefighter Operator Kelly Little. He works with Livingston

FPD #2 on his off days.

Don't Forget the Blood Drive

The St. George Professional Firefighters Association and LifeShare Blood Center of Baton Rouge are holding a blood drive from 6:00AM until 1:00PM on Monday, February 25. Representatives of LifeShare, which is major provider of our local hospitals' blood supply, will be in the classroom at the Department's administrative offices at 13686 Perkins Road.

How Busy Was Your Crew Last Year

Thanks to Assistant Chief Roberson for the data and the idea.
